Dear Friends,

FAMC is looking for 4 new members. We expect people wanting to serve in FAMC to have a good understanding of what this job requires. At the least, we expect people to have read and understood the FAMC mandate, and the current Code of Conduct for Units and Trusts which is posted on Auronet and are committed to carrying out the responsibilities that those documents set out.

Additionally, here are the skills and commitments we would like from new members.

Commitment of one's time:
We would like 2 people to be available for ½ time work and a minimum of 2 persons to be available for full time work. Specifically, aspiring members should be able to commit to:
- 3 regular meetings a week (3 hours each): Currently these are on Tuesday afternoons, Thursday and Saturday mornings and subject to change soon.
- 1 meeting a month as and when necessary.
- Being a liaison for a working group, which may require at least one more meeting a week
- Having time to volunteer to be a driver and follow up on issues outside of meetings

Required skills:
We would like people with the following skills:
- High competence with Finances and analysis
- Competency in English to help in writing reports and letters
- Organisation skills with an attention to detail
- Managerial skills to delegate, facilitate, follow up

In addition, 1 of the selected members will be required to interface with the administrative secretariat.

Other key skills that all aspiring members should have:
- A non-partisan holistic perspective of Auroville
- An understanding of Auroville processes and organizational structures
- An understanding of financial management
- Some understanding of Indian laws pertaining to funds and asset management
- Integrity (Ability to maintain confidentiality and serve the community by transcending one’s personal preferences)

Other desirable skills:
- Ability to listen to and harmonize different viewpoints
- Team work
- Sense of humour!

In community,
FAMC
