Prudence and Balance

Vigilance: indispensable for all true progress.

* In each human being there is a beast crouching ready to manifest at the slightest unwatchfulness. The only remedy is a constant vigilance.

* Prudence: very useful for weakness because weakness needs prudence; strength does not need it.

* Common sense: it is very practical and avoids any mistakes, but it lacks light.

* Sobriety has never done harm to anyone.

* * *

Equanimity: immutable peace and calm.

* In the deep peace of equanimity the love will grow to its full blossoming in a sense of pure and constant unity.

Prudence and Balance

The loss of money is of small importance, but the loss of equipoise is a much more important thing.

20 August 1935

All mischief comes from a lack of balance.
So, let us keep our balance carefully, always, in all circumstances.

10 August 1954

Perfect balance: one of the most important conditions of a growing peace.
